Notice of Course Fee Revision

Thank you for your continued support of MOL DPTC training courses.

We would like to inform you that our course fees will be revised in response to the increased costs associated with training materials, course operations, and the continuous enhancement of our training environment.

The revised fees will apply to all courses commencing on or after January 1, 2027.

We remain committed to providing high-quality training and educational services and appreciate your understanding and continued support.

Please refer to the attached fee schedule for details of the revised course fees.

Sincerely,

MOL DP Training Center Tokyo, Japan
